

IQUALUIT MAKERSPACE REGISTRATION

The Iqaluit Makerspace provides a community hub for creativity, innovation, and knowledge sharing in Iqaluit. The space serves as a centre for exploration and growth in science, technology, engineering, arts, and math that intersects with everyday living, language, and culture. If it's creative in any shape or form, it has a home at the Iqaluit Makerspace. Please return this completed form in person (building 1412) or by email (signup@pinnguaq.com).
